GIRL DISAPPEARS FROM MIAMI IN BROAD DAYLIGHT

Miami has its second mysterious disappearance within four months. This time a girl, Ora Boggs, aged 15, has been missing for a week—having disapeared from within a block of her home about 7:30 o'clock Sunday morning, July 16.

A week ago Monday night Miss Boggs spent the night with a girl friend, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Denner of Lower Miami. The next morning Mr. Denner took the girl home in his car when he went to his work at the Inspiration supply house. He let Miss Boggs out near her home on Hill street in Lower Miami and drove on to his work. From that moment nothing has been seen of the girl, at least nobody has been found who can shed any light on her whereabouts.

When it was discovered by the girl's parents Mr. and Mrs Wm. Boggs that the girl had left her friend's house and had not arrived home, search was immediately instituted. Brothers and sisters of the girl living at Safford, Mesa and San Diego were immediately telegraphed to be on the lookout for her.

No Reason for Going

The girl's parents say there is no reason in the world for her leaving home. She had never expressed any desire to go away from home her parents say, and seldom went on the shortest erranda without their consent. Miss Boggs is 15 years old and is described as large for her age. She is 5 feet, 9 inches tall, has brown hair and eyes, and weighs about 128 pounds She wore a red dress and red hat the morning she disappeared.—Globe Record.

Miss Boggs is a grand-daughter of Mrs. Versa Steele who lives in Layton and a neice of Frank Boggs, the blacksmith. The relatives here are keeping on the watch for her, or for some clew that might possibly clear up the mystery of her disappearance.

FISHING TRIP TO WHITE RIVER

Every summer the White River country has been a very popular place for fishermen and those desiring to have a few days outing, but this summer its quota of visitors has greatly exceeded that of any previous season and every few days we hear of parties leaving for that section to spend a week or ten days away from the heat of the valley. The latest party to leave for that section is composed of Ted Waughtel, Wilbur Ijams, Jas. A. Parker and Chas. Schroder, who left early Sunday morning This is the second trip for Mr. Waughtel and Mr. Ijams this summer, but the fishing has such a facination for them that they were unable to resist the temptation to go again.

KIMBALL WRITES LETTER TO STATE TAX CONFERENCE

Being unable to attend the meeting of the State tax commission and conference that is being held in Bisbee yesterday and today on account of the serious illness of his wife, Hon. Andrew Kimball, member of the commission on agriculture, has written the following letter to the members of the commision and all those in attendance. The letter was written at Santa Monica, Cal., under date of July 20, and is given below:

"I trust your deliberations will be attended with good and that thru your efforts you may not only provide recourse for the State, but safeguard her industrial welfare by assessments in keeping with returns on investments.

"One of our most careful farmers, one who does his own work and keeps tab on everything, told me that it cost him 25 per cent more to produce his wheat this year than he got for it and that if conditions did not change for the better, farmers would go out of business.

"If the usual summer rain fall is not augmented by greater precipitation, stock men will lose heavily. The revenue producing interests of the state cannot pay taxes without returns, and it is evident that they will not resume operations unless assured of such returns.

"While it is true there is great improvement, and our hopes run high for return to normal, we are too old in the business to kid ourselves into the belief that we are prosperous.

"In state affairs, I believe we should manage as in private, live within our means.

"'Economy in Government' should be our watchword. Its practice with thrift and industry will safeguard us against the rocks of bankruptcy.

"Let us keep our ears in touch with the radio of events throughout the state and country, and while your honorable body are assessing for revenue to keep the machinery of the state hitting correctly, on all her cylinders, let us be sure that developments along all lines of industry fully warrant the draft made upon them.

"With kindest regards to all

"Very truly yours,

ANDREW KIMBALL"

BLAKE AND HIGGINS LEASE RESTAURANT

AS TEDDY JR SEES IT

Editor's Note: The recent triumph of progressive Republican candidates in various states and upset of other Old Guard leaders brought forth the following comment from Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., Assistant Secretary of the Navy, when approached by the Washington representative of this newspaper:

I AM delighted with Gifford Pinchot's victory in Pennsylvania.

It indicates a general trend toward progressive ideals. In this connection, however, it is necessary to bear in mind that since 1912 lines are blurred considerably on progressive policies.

For example, a very large part of the 1912 progressive platform has already become the law of the land. In this, woman suffrage is a specific incident.

COMMISSIONER BETTS VISITS SAFFORD AND VALLTY

Corporation Commissioner Amos A. Betts, who had been in Thatcher on commission business, was in Safford Friday evening and until the train left Saturday morning. Friday evening he attended a special meeting of the town council and later was the honored guest at a meeting of the Masonic Lodge, of which organization he is the Grand Lecturer.

Mr. Betts is a candidate for renomination to the office of corporation commissioner and, while he has a large acquaintenance among the people here, took advantage of this opportunity to meet as many of the voters as possible in the interest of his candidacy.

As a member of the present corporation commission, Mr. Betts has proved himself to be an efficient and conscientious officer and during the two years he, assisted by the other members of the commission has secured the reduction in rates or denied applications for increases amounting to $2,884,558.78, which has been of great benefit to the people of this state.

He has always been a staunch democrat and has worked for the best interests of that party. He is deserving of the party's hearty support at the primary election in September and if nominated will doubtless meet with success at the polls in the general election.

FROM INDIAN HOT SPRINGS

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. "Danny" McGuire returned Friday form a two week's vacation spent at Indian Hot Springs near Safford. Thoroughly boiled out and full of the good food supplied by the proprietor of the hotel, Mrs. Broshears, the boys are feeling in the best of health.—Douglas International.

CHAS ROGER CANDIDATE FOR CLERK OF THE SUPERIOR COURT

In another column of this paper, is the announcement of Chas Rogers, who is a candidate for the office of Clerk of the Superior Court of Graham county.

Mr. Rogers is thoroughly qualified for the position for the position to which he aspires, receiving his education in the Grammar schools of Graham county, and also having graduated with high honors from the Commercial department of the Gila Normal College, with the class of 1911. Since that time, Mr. Rogers has studied varied subjects privately and through correspondence. In March, 1921, he passed the state examination to teach school.

Mr. Rogers has had considerable practical experience in office and clerical work and was for two years Constable and two years Justice of the Peace of Pima Precinct, the second largest in Graham county. For the past year Mr. Rogers has served the Town of Pima with distinction, as town Clerk.

Besides all these excellent qualifications Mr. Rogers' character is above reproach, being ever ready to serve the public cheerfully, to the best of his ability. Mr. Rogers is a life long Democrat, a taxpayer, and a home builder.

TAX CONFERENCE BEING HELD IN BISBEE

The famous 91st Division's equally famous "Powder River" described in the division's war cry as "miles long, inches wide an' feet deep" and nothing on Bisbee, where the tenth annual State Tax Conference is being held and continues tomorrow.

Bisbee is literally miles long, only a little more than "inches wide" in some places and several hundred feet deep in the main part of the city.

State and county officials and taxpayers of Arizona who attend the conference will no doubt agree on arriving in Bisbee, that "It's different," as the Bisbee Chamber of Commerce proudly claims in its most recent phamplets concerning Bisbee.

Bisbee, with its narrow, winding ing streets, is not regarded as a convention city; the state tax conference is the first big gathering here in years. But Bisbee promises that those who attend the conference will enjoy its mountain scenery, its cool days and nights and everything else about the quaint combination mining camp and modern city that makes it different.

The Bisbee Chamber of Commerce is planning several entertainment features, including a free barbecue at Naco to be staged under the personal supervision of Joe Sarkis Dominguez, popularly known as "The Prince of Naco." A dance in the Warren Distric Country Club for visitors and their wives is also being arragned.

MAN KILLED ON HIGHWAY FORMER SAFFORD RESIDENT

Joseph Stewart, who was killed about ten days ago in a canyon off the Superior-Miami highway, was a former resident of this place and will be remembered by many as the elderly man who helped trim all the cottonwood trees in the town last year.

James Talbot, the man accused of the murder, also lived here at the same time and his family occupied tents in the cottonwood grove near the wholesale house. From what we can learn of the people it appears that Talbot left his family here in destitute circumstances and when their condition became known to Mr. Stewart, he saw to it that they did not suffer from want and hunger and befriended them in many ways.

Mr. Stewart had many friends here who speak highly of him and who regret to learn of his death in such a manner.

WATER USERS OF THATCHER ASK RATE REDUCTION

The application of the citizens of Thatcher for a reduction in the water rates of the Thatcher Water Company, was heard Friday afternoon, by Amos A. Betts, representing the corporation commission, who after hearing the testimony took the case under consideration and will render a decision later.

The water consumers of Thatcher believed the rate charged for water by the company was to high and appealed to the corporation commission for relief.

The testimony given at the hearing brought out the fact that 200 water consumers in Thatcher used as much or more water than did the 500 consumers of Safford. This was accounted for by the fact that the people of Thatcher are on a flat rate and are not using meters, while the Safford consumers are on meters and pay a rate of so much per 1000 gallons. This difference will no doubt be remedied by the commission when it hands down a decision in this case.

SAILOR BOY HOME AFTER ABSENCE OF 3 YEARS

Saturday afternoon Karl Beebe arrived home from San Diego on a twenty days leave of absence from the navy. Karl joined the navy in 1919 and this is his first visit home since his enlistment and his friends and relatives are delighted to see him.

Upon entering the navy three years ago he was given a special course in training after which he was stationed at New York and later was transferred to the Coco Solo Canal Zone and spent two years in that country. From the canal zone he was sent to North Island, near San Diego and now ranks as a first class aviation rater.

Karl says that he enjoys the life of a sailor and that the boys are all treated well and receive the best of care. The canal zone he reports as being very warm with lots of rain all the time.

BOY FROM VALLEY MEETS DEATH IN CALIFORNIA CITY

About 8:00 o'clock Sunday evening, July 16, Arthur Matthews, the 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Matthews, of Glenbar, was accidentally killed by being struck by an electric car at Venice, Cal.

Arthur had been visiting his brother in that city and on that day had met a boy friend from this valley, who was leaving that evening for home. The two boys had gone to the station and after the train left, Arthur was waiting for the street car that would take him to the home of his brother and as he watched the approach of this car another came up from the rear and before he realized his danger was struck in the back and instantly killed. He was identified by papers found in his pockets and his brother was notified of his death, who immediately sent a message to his parents at Glenbar, notifying them of the sad event. The body was prepared for shipment and after the inquest on Tuesday, was sent to his parents at Glenbar and arrived Thursday afternoon.

Funeral services were held in the church in his home town Friday morning and were attended by all his friends of whom he had a great many. The services were very impressive and the speakers were Bishop Frank Tyler, President Payne and Bishop Greenhalgh. Several beautiful vocal selections were rendered by the choir and at the close of the service the body was converey to the cemetery where it was intered.

The loss of this young man is a sad blow to his parents and the sympathy of the entire community is extended to them in their sorrow.

SMALL FOREST FIRE IN GRAHAM MOUNTAINS

About noon Sunday a fire was discovered in the forest in Deadman's canyon in the Graham mountains and was reported immediately to the ranger's station at Camp Columbine, which is some distance from the scene of the fire. By the time the rangers reached the place a heavy rain was falling which soon extinguished the blaze.

It is believed by the forest men that the fire was started by lightning during the storm Friday and had smoldered along until Sunday, when is burst into a blaze.

Look back over the past years and you will quickly see where you have been both careless and foolish in the way you spent your money. A good deal of this came from having the money in your POCKET. If that money had been in our bank, you would probably still have it, and would have grown to a nice round sum.

Forget the past—today is here. Come in and start a bank account and by REGULARLY depositing your spare money, you will soon have money.

VERY EXCITING TRIP TO PHOENIX AND RETURN

Mrs. Vergie R. Wilson returned Thursday last from an overland trip to Phoenix, and reports rather an exciting time. An accident half way between Globe and the dam brought her back to that city for a day and a half. Out on the desert, two punctures necessitated going back several miles to a service station for a new tire, and later was caught on the summit on the Apache Trail in the big hurricane that struck Phoenix and the Salt River Valley last week, and which took the top off the car. A race down the mountain against a cloudburst was one of the thrills experienced but the climax came when the party was caught in the heavy rain storm that visited Rice and San Carlos Thursday night, which made them late getting home.

While in Phoenix, Mrs. Wilson made arrangements to enter the St. Joseph hospital in that city the first of September, where she will take a post graduate course in nursing. She herself is a graduate and registered nurse, but the taking of a post-graduate course will qualify her to take up the work of training nurses.

Words of Wisdom

THRIFT—It is easy to prove that money spent on trifles in youth would keep many a man from want in old age.

Opening a saving account in a child's name has many times resulted in thrift-forming habits which have been the foundation stones for a successful life.

Out-of-town neighbors might do well to make the trip into town more than a spending excursion from the child's standpoint. Make it an event for adding a little to a saving account.

Goodrich
announces
new tire prices
—lowest cost mileage ever known

Effective July 20th, Goodrich establishes a revised price list that is a base line of tire value. It gives the motorist the buying advantage of knowing that whatever size tire he selects is of the same quality—the Goodrich one-quality standard. It gives him the longest mileage, the most satisfactory service and the highest quality his money can buy. Results will prove that it is impossible to buy tire mileage at lower cost.

Think of being able to buy
at such prices as these:

SIZE	BASE LINE PRICE	SIZE	BASE LINE PRICE
30 x 3½ Cl.	$13.50	34 x 4 S. B.	$30.85
31 x 3.85 Cl.	15.95	32 x 4½ S. B.	37.70

SYNOPSIS

CHAPTER I.—Looking over Big Muskeg, a seemingly impassable swamp in the path of the Missatibi railroad, Joe Bostock, builder of the line, and Wilton Carruthers, chief of engineers, are considering the difficulties. A rifle shot instantly kills Bostock and breaks Carruthers' arm. Handicapped as he is, Carruthers determines to carry the body to a station of the Hudson's Bay company, where one McDonald is the factor.

CHAPTER II.—McDonald's daughter, Molly, sees Carruthers struggling in the muskeg and drags him from the swamp, with his burden. Unaccountably, her father objects to her saving Carruthers.

CHAPTER III.—Weakened by his wound and exertions, Carruthers is disturbed by the appearance of Tom Bowyer, Bostock's business rival and personal enemy. Bowyer insults Molly, and Carruthers strikes him. After Bowyer leaves, Carruthers declares his love for Molly. She promises to be his wife.

CHAPTER V.

The Bitter Cup.

Hardly had they topped the rise behind which the cache was situated when the full force of the wind caught them. A blizzard was sweeping up, and it grew in strength all that morning, until by noon it was almost a hurricane. They pushed on doggedly until about one o'clock, avoiding the temptation to rest at the auxiliary caches which had been established along this part of the road.

At one o'clock they came to an empty cache and horse stable, which had been built in anticipation of winter development work, and had formed the hub of many radiating reconnoissance roads. They had come no more than six miles, and it was still a good fifteen into Clayton. By this time the blizzard had increased to an intense violence, driving great sheets of snow along the road. It was impossible to face such a hurricane any longer.

"We'll have to wait till this lets up a bit, Molly," said Wilton.

The little shack, hardly more than four walls and a roof, was unoccupied. Wilton broke down the door and went in. He found the key of the stable, unlocked it, and unharnessed the dogs. He drove them in and shut the door. Then he took the blankets out of the sleigh and went into the shack.

To build a fire was impossible, but they ate biscuit and tinned beef, washing it down with water.

"It'll have to let up soon," said Wilton. "If it doesn't, we'll just have to face it again."

A dozen times he had regretted having yielded to her insistence to accompany him. Traveling in that weather was hard on a man, let alone a girl such as Molly. He looked at her in wonder as he saw her apparent unconcern, the courage with which she faced the difficulties of the journey. But his fears were centered chiefly on Kitty. Suppose he couldn't go on! Suppose he couldn't be at the shareholders' meeting on the morrow!

Toward the middle of the afternoon the wind seemed to have lessened, though the driven snow still swept in blinding clouds along the road. It might be possible to reach Clayton soon after nightfall.

"I think we might try again, Molly," he said.

"I think so, Will," she answered.

He caught her to him. "You are the bravest woman I know," he said, kissing her. "We must succeed—for Kitty's sake."

She kissed him back. "Of course we shall, Will, dear," she answered.

Wilton went into the stable and called the dogs. They were lying with their noses together, and at his entrance sprang to their feet with menacing growls. They knew very well what his advent portended, and it was plain that their wolfish temper was thoroughly aroused.

Wilton had handled a refractory pack once before. He knew that quick action was necessary. He stepped forward, and, as the gleaming jaws gaped at him, and the animals prepared to spring, snarling and quivering with rage, he brought his whip across the leader's nose with all his strength.

Immediately, with maddened yells, the pack leaped at him. Wilton swung right and left with the whip, and then, retreating till his back was against the wall of the shack, he laid about him with the shortened stock.

With gaping jaws and wicked, bloodshot eyes, the pack came on again and again, leaping at him, tearing at his clothes; one sank its fangs into his right hand, and, as he freed himself with a smashing blow, the others were upon him sideward.

In an instant he was struggling with his one hand against the heavy bodies that bore him back, shielding his throat, thrusting the whipstock into the red, cavernous jaws, while the anguish from his wrenched shoulder almost made him scream with pain.

Everything was swimming round him. They had him down. Their bellowing howls grew fainter in his ears. Mechanically he kept his right hand at his throat. The left, torn from the sling, flopped grotesquely in front of him. He heard the click of the fangs that met in it, and felt no pain. He was swooning.

There's a Fisk Tire of extra value in every size, for car, truck or speed wagon

FORD BUILDS OWN WINDSHIELD GLASS

The Ford Motor Company, Detroit, has begun to manufacture its own plate glass, and already has in operation the first modern plant ever equipped especially to make glass for automobiles, is the word just received by W. E. Barunm, authorized Ford and Lincoln dealer.

As is customary when taking over the manufacture of a new product, Ford has applied his own principles of production, and, as a consequence, the methods and machinery used in making Ford glass are a radical departure from established practice. The Ford continuous conveyor system features the operations, so that from the time the glass leaves the furnace until it becomes a polished windshield, it is always moving.

Glass making when viewed in the Ford plant, looks to be very simple. The raw materials are introduced into the furnace where they become a molten mass Drawn from the furnace in a semi-liquid state, the glass passes under a roller, which gives it a width and thickness, and on to a moving conveyor. This carries it fr 464 feet through a gradually cooling furnace. At the end, it is cut and placed on another conveyor, which carries it through the grinding and polishing, after which it is ready for use.

This adds a new link to the fast growing chain of Ford industries, which are being established and expanded from time to time, in line with the Ford policy of achieving complete independence of outside material sourcees in manufacturing Ford products, and at the same time, are the means by which Ford is enabled to use in the production of motor cars, trucks and tractors material of unusually high quality and sell them at the famous Ford prices.
